

1596 a
Die Martis 29. Februarii. 1647.

Resolved by the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament.

THat no person or persons whatsoever, presume to Raife, List, Muster, or gather together any Souldiers, or Forces upon pretence of Transporting them for the service of any forraigne Prince or State, within the City of London, or within ten miles of the said City.

Resolved &c.

THat no person or persons whatsoever presume to Raife, List, Muster, or gather together any Souldiers, or Forces in any place of this Kingdome for the service of any forraigne Prince or State, or to Transport any Souldiers or Forces out of this Kingdom, without the speciall licence of the Committee of Derby house

Die Martis 29 Februarii. 1647.

O*rdere*d by the Lords Assembled in Parliament, that these Votes be forthwith printed and published.

Imprinted at London for John Wright at the Kings Head in the Old-Bayley. 1647.

Resolved by the Lords and Commons assembled
in Parliament

That no person or persons whatsoever shall raise, lend, muster, or gather together any soldiers, or force upon pretence of transporting them for the service of any foreign Prince or State, within the City of London, or within ten miles of the

not to raise - 14)
force for any Foreign Prince
within ten miles of London

And that no person or persons whatsoever shall transport any soldiers or force out of this Kingdom for the service of any foreign Prince or State, or to any other use, without the licence of the Committee of the House of Commons

And a Proclamation was made accordingly

Enacted by the Lords assembled in Parliament

Printed in London for John Wright at the Kings Head in the Strand 1647